

Clyde Hill

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Surrounded by other equally fine cities and towns, the City of Clyde Hill has unique distinction of having spectacular views of Lake Washington, Mount Rainer, the Olympic Mountains, the Cascade Mountain range and the Seattle skyline from its many higher elevations. The City's park-like towering evergreens and a lush profusion of northwestern foliage on public and private property are the pride of its friendly citizens and a delight to visitors.

Clyde Hill is fortunate to be located within a region that is characterized by remarkable natural beauty. Our proximity to a wide range of outdoor recreation and scenic opportunities is an important part of the quality of life enjoyed by City residents.
